Animals V2 Riva Project

Rue de Tenbosch 124, 1050, Brussels

From the private collection of Charles Riva, the second part of the exhibition ANIMALS continues to reflect upon the representation of the figure of the animal in contemporary art.

Bringing together works by Martin Creed, Jeff Koons, Claude Lorraine, François-Xavier Lalanne, Sherrie Levine, Paul McCarthy and David Zink Yi, this selection raises questions around sanctification, distortion and the specific attention given by the artists to the figure of the animal.

On view through July 7th.
